

10 best romantic hotel bars: Nashville power couple's picks

By Stacie Standifer

Cassie and Charles Kelley are one of the most attractive, interesting and followed couples in country music. He's the guy belting out harmonies as a part of the award-winning trio Lady Antebellum. Charles is also an accomplished songwriter whose hits have helped propel his career. Cassie Kelley is a trendsetting blogger with celebrity ties of her own and a keen sense of style. Cassie's blog Womanista.com is featured in Allure magazine and other top titles, and she does PR for red-carpet stars including Jake Owen and Josh Kelley (her brother-in-law).

Having been married a few years now, this couple keeps the fire burning by visiting new places as well as toasting the future in familiar haunts. They've been fortunate to stay in some fantastic hotels, and when we caught up with them, Cassie shares the couple's 10 best romantic hotel bars, and why they love each one:

Farm at The Carneros Inn is the perfect place for a glass of wine and some romance.

7. The Farm, The Carneros Inn; Napa, Calif.

"The wine, the vistas, and the ease of life in Napa Valley make it one of our top getaways," says Kelley, "and The Farm at The Carneros Inn is the perfect spot for romance. Snuggle up by the fire on a cool night with a rich glass of cabernet sauvignon, and enjoy sweeping views over the vineyard."