

Carneros Inn Offers Produce Baskets to Guests, Dessert Time in San Francisco & More

Guests of Carneros Inn Get Gift of Organic Produce

Guests who depart the Carneros Inn in Napa on Sundays can now receive a free brimming bag of fresh-picked fruit and veggies from the resort's 1/2-acre biodynamic, organic garden to take home.

Those goodies might include heirloom tomatoes, kale, Swiss chard, watermelon, cucumber, carrots, peas, strawberries and raspberries, as well as a bevy of herbs and flowers. The good-for-you goody bag is available for the asking at check-out and even comes with a recipe, too.

Peter Stonebraker, the property's culinary gardener, grows an abundance of produce for the resort's private dining restaurant, Hilltop Dining Room, as well as for its FARM restaurant and Boon Fly Cafe. And he's more than happy to share the wealth.
