Surrounded by 27 acres of grapevines, apple orchards, and rolling farmland, this "breathtakingly beautiful inn" draws its look from the working countryside with barnlike buildings, open beams, and board-and-batten construction. Individual cottages with modern interiors are set up in mini neighborhoods and have fireplaces with polished concrete hearths, cherry floors, and French doors leading to landscaped gardens. The restaurant Farm features produce from the inn's culinary garden and orchards. Pick vegetables, feed the wandering livestock, and enjoy "the best massage of your life," all while enjoying complimentary local wine and chocolate treats.
